LEARNING OBJECTIVES

As a result of attending the SPN 33rd Annual Conference, attendees will be able to:

- Grow their professional network by collaborating with peers and experts in the pediatric nursing specialty.
- Learn best practices that enhance patient experience, quality care, cost reduction, and promote healthy work environments.
- Implement new knowledge to promote best practice in the organizational setting.
- Create a professional development plan through networking and participation in educational sessions.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

SPN is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

SPN is a provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider #CEP16532 for up to 24 NCPD Contact hours.

Continuing Education: Society of Pediatric Nurses is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THESE SPECIAL EVENTS

NETWORKING SESSION

Wednesday, April 26 • 11:45 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.

On the first day of the conference, greet old friends and meet new faces. There will be six roundtable discussions based on specialty topics, including a first-time attendee table, so come ready to ask questions and share best practices.

HOSPITAL TOUR

Thursday, April 27 • 5:45 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Join SPN on Thursday evening for a hospital tour. Network with your colleagues, observe day-to-day operations, and gain insights to take back to your workplace. Pre-registration and a $5 registration fee is required.

WELCOME RECEPTION

Wednesday, April 26 • 5:00 p.m. – 6:45 p.m.

Join SPN and your colleagues to kick off this year's Annual Conference! Make new connections and socialize with your peers as you preview the vendors and their services in the Exhibit Hall.

MOVIE NIGHT

Thursday, April 27 • 6:00 p.m. – 7:15 p.m.

Unwind from your day by joining fellow SPN members for a movie night! Attendees will have the opportunity to view The American Nurse by director and producer Carolyn Jones. Refreshments will be served during the movie. Pre-registration and a $15 registration fee is required.

I keep returning to the SPN conferences because they provide education by nurses for nurses. I leave being inspired to continue to make a difference in my patients' lives.

PLENARY SESSIONS

Opening Keynote

The American Nurse: Defining Hope with Carolyn Jones

Wednesday, April 26
1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Carolyn Jones, photographer, author, and filmmaker behind The American

Nurse Project and Defining Hope, spent over ten years documenting the work of nurses across the country, a journey that led her to conclude that "without them, we don't stand a chance." That was before the global coronavirus pandemic thrust our nation's nurses even further onto the frontlines of healthcare, addressing our physical and emotional needs before sending us back out into the world. In this session, Jones will share inspiring excerpts and stories from her book The American Nurse, and her three documentary films—with a special focus on the pediatric nurses she met along the way—shedding light on some of the biggest healthcare challenges facing Americans today and how nurses can tackle them head-on.

PLENARY SESSIONS

Caring for Others: Race Matters

Opening Plenary with Barbara Broome, PhD, RN, FAAN

Thursday, April 27
9:15 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Individuals from underrepresented groups are asked to be the experts for their peer group. The expectation is that a person from the same group will know the likes, dislikes, ambitions and the why for other members of the same or similar group. In other words, we are asked to know “what makes them tick”. Although there may be similar characteristics among a group, each person is unique. Learning to understand and appreciate those differences is what generates personal growth and understanding.

The goal of this dialog is to stimulate reflection and a better understanding of how words and actions can create barriers. It is hoped that as nurses, we can begin to embrace the unique and wonderful differences as we care for others and ourselves.

Leading with Accountability: How to Be the Best Version of You!

Plenary Session with Stephanie Meyer, RN, MS-FNP, NEA-BC

Thursday, April 27
1:45p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Accountability is key to both personal and professional success. This session will take an in-depth look at how to develop the essential skills necessary to become our best selves. We will discuss our role in the “struggle” and how to use communication techniques to drive improvement.

Hot Topics

Plenary Session with SPN Past Presidents

Friday, April 28
9:15 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

SPN is committed to defining and delineating how pediatric nursing is different from general nursing practice. This session will discuss the soon to be released SPN Pediatric Nursing Excellence Model, the journey of its development, how to implement and use the model in your practice and innovative next steps.

What’s New In SPN

Plenary Session

Friday, April 28
12:45 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.

It is important to take the time to acknowledge the hard work that has been done over the past year. Join in as one community as SPN leaders review our community’s accomplishments and goals for the future.

CLOSING SESSION

“Stewards of the Precious”: Nursing’s History and Leadership in Research

Closing Session with Julie Fairman, PhD, RN, FAAN

Friday, April 28
3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

The work that is done to improve the evidence for patient care can be said to be the work of love—especially during this incredible time of disruption, frustration, death, and dying. If we look to our history, we will understand we have been here before—through pandemics, and war—but the context is different. Our hope and our future depends on our understanding of our history—AND our engagement with patients and our efforts to build the evidence base for better care, better relationships with our provider colleagues, and better relationships among ourselves. In this talk, we will walk through the history of nursing research and the impact it has had on patient care.

WI completely enjoyed this opportunity to attend this conference. I am now refreshed and renewed in my love of pediatric nursing and have come back with the excitement to help improve my own pediatric unit. I am planning on going back to school, and seeing all the opportunities, research and EBP out there, I am overwhelmed (in a good way) to continue my education and nursing career.
